No worries Darcy. Happy 4th of July (one day early, but better than forgetting I figure)!!

How does next Tuesday or Wednesday at 8:30am MST work?

Cheers,
Blake

Hi John and Blake – I'm so sorry, Blake – I think your emails may be going to my clutter inbox. I'm happy to have a call – let me know your current location and potential day – I'm pretty booked tomorrow and out Friday, but can set something up early next week if that works.

Thanks!
D

Darcy,

I am sending you this email to see if you received the below. We would still like to discuss.

Look forward to speaking with you soon.

Sincerely,

John

Hi Darcy,

Wanted to follow up on the below email. There has been back and forth the last couple weeks and it seems that the documents are well advanced and the Aug 1st date seems well in hand.

That said, are you free for a call early next week to discuss the latest? I will be on the west coast, so flexible timing wise.

Cheers,
Blake

Hi Darcy,

I hope you enjoyed your weekend!

A quick update – John has a meeting with Valois and Chuck today to discuss the last couple of items that are in our court.

I also wanted to reach out to set up a call for the three of us (you, John and I) for this week or next to discuss the current status. With August 1st being the deadline, I wanted to make sure we understand how the next two months look in terms of discussions, etc.

Cheers,
Blake
